

K-Love Radio serves me as a resident of the local community. Many people in this area listen to this station regularly and if it were to be displaced by an LPFM broadcaster we may not be able to receive it. This is a station that provides not only music that is safe for the whole family including children of all ages, but it is very encouraging and informative about things from family life to news around the world. Please do not let it be replaced.